

JOB DESCRIPTION

Analyst, Investor Relations

DRI Capital is a pioneer and global leader in healthcare royalty investing. Founded in 1992 as Drug Royalty Corporation, DRI Capital is the oldest and the largest healthcare royalty private equity fund manager in the world. Today DRI Capital is a fully-integrated team of more than 30 investment professionals and support staff with well over U.S. $2 billion under management, focused on identifying, assessing, acquiring and managing biopharmaceutical royalty assets across the globe. Collectively, the professional team has over 150 years of experience. The team has individuals with backgrounds in the pharmaceutical industry, as well as in scientific, financial, healthcare, intellectual property and legal disciplines. This breadth of knowledge and training allows DRI Capital to identify unique potential investments and conduct its due diligence on such investments quickly and effectively.

DRI is looking for a highly-motivated and results-driven individual to join our team as an Analyst. This interesting and challenging position will provide the right person with a unique opportunity to learn about our global private equity business.

The Investor Relations Analyst will contribute to the development and management of effective communications between DRI and its large and growing limited partner base with the objective of achieving solid relationships, and ensuring that the company's results, strategies and brand are appropriately portrayed.

Specific Accountabilities

Support key aspects of the communication material to external investors

- Assist with preparation of materials for annual meetings, quarterly conference calls and other presentations to Limited Partners.
- Work with the IR team to ensure the information is appropriately presented, accurate and complete.
- Contribute to the preparation of discussion materials for quarterly and annual financial reports.
- Manage the distribution of all financial and legal related communications to Limited Partners.
- Assist in the development and maintenance of materials related to fundraising activities including investor presentations, website and diligence requests.

Drive development and positioning of investment story

- Maintain and strengthen credibility through accurate, balanced and timely communications.
- Ensure key messages are simple, consistent and credible.
- Support Investor Relations communications events, including fundraising activities, investor conferences and quarterly conference calls.

Support external relationships with investors

- Primary day to day contact for existing and new investor queries.
- Preparation of responses to Limited Partner requests for information related to investments or financial matters.
- Coordinate with cross-functional groups including finance, legal, and investing teams to ensure investor queries are handled efficiently and accurately.
- Respond consistently on a timely basis to any inquiries.
- Maintenance of all Limited Partner contacts, details and interactions through investor web portal and CRM.

Help to execute an investor strategy and plan focusing on

- Retaining existing investors and attracting new investors.
- Building and maintaining as a professional, proactive and knowledgeable company.
- Maintaining trusted relationships with the Limited Partner community.

The DRI core values are “team work”, “integrity” and “drive to win.” Accordingly, the candidate we are looking for will demonstrate the following:

- Outstanding communication skills, both written and verbal
- Excellent interpersonal and well developed relationship management skills
- A track record of hard work and success
- Strong organizational skills, with attention to detail and a proactive nature
- Ability to work well in a high pressure, time sensitive, entrepreneurial environment
- Quantitative aptitude, and experience with financial modeling
- Willingness to learn and contribute to all aspects of the business
- Positive attitude towards challenges and problems
- Demonstrated ability to engender trust and confidence of senior professionals, both internally and externally; able to interact effectively with all levels of senior management and across various groups (i.e. accounting, finance, investment professionals)

Qualified candidates will hold an undergraduate Business degree specializing in finance or accounting and will possess the requisite Microsoft Office skills. An undergraduate degree in the Life Sciences or an MBA would also be considered an asset.

The position is located in downtown Toronto and offers a competitive compensation package, commensurate with experience.

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter to careers@dricapital.com, citing the position title in the subject line. We thank all applicants for their response but only those considered for an interview will be contacted.